

Ordinance 12: Scrutiny of the question paper and Wrong/Out of Syllabus questions

1. The scrutiny of the question paper should be done by the students in the exam hall.
2. During this process if he/she finds some questions as wrong or out of syllabus then it should be reported to the invigilator followed by a written application explaining the details [after the exam].
3. The invigilator should immediately report it to Exam Department who in turn will consult the BOS of concerned department and do accordingly.
4. All necessary measures will be taken by exam department to prevent the leaking of question paper during this stage.
5. The Chief Controller of Examinations (Director) takes the final decision and the necessary actions will be initiated.
6. But during this process care must be taken not to disturb the balancing of question paper in terms of marks and units.
7. In all such cases the decision by Chief Controller of Examinations/Exam Department will be treated as final.
